

Return Policy

Welcome to The Collector's Universe!

Our return policy is stated as follows. Unless otherwise noted, we sell our items as Mint-in-Package, meaning the item is unopened, in original packaging. Depending on the age of the item, the package may not be in pristine condition and may have shelf-wear.

We are mainly selling our pop culture items in a secondary, collectible market, with a focus toward collector buyers. Because of this, once a package is opened we cannot accept any returns. We will happily accept returns within 14 days money back, you pay return shipping, 20% restocking fee may apply.
